Description

Located in one of the most unique spots on Ibiza's southwest coast, this spacious apartment offers an unusual combination of privacy, independent spaces, and an extraordinary natural environment. Situated in Cala Carbó, it boasts stunning views of Es Vedrà and a tranquil atmosphere, surrounded by pine forests and Mediterranean landscapes. Cala d'Hort, Cala Vadella, and the village of San José are just a few minutes' drive away.

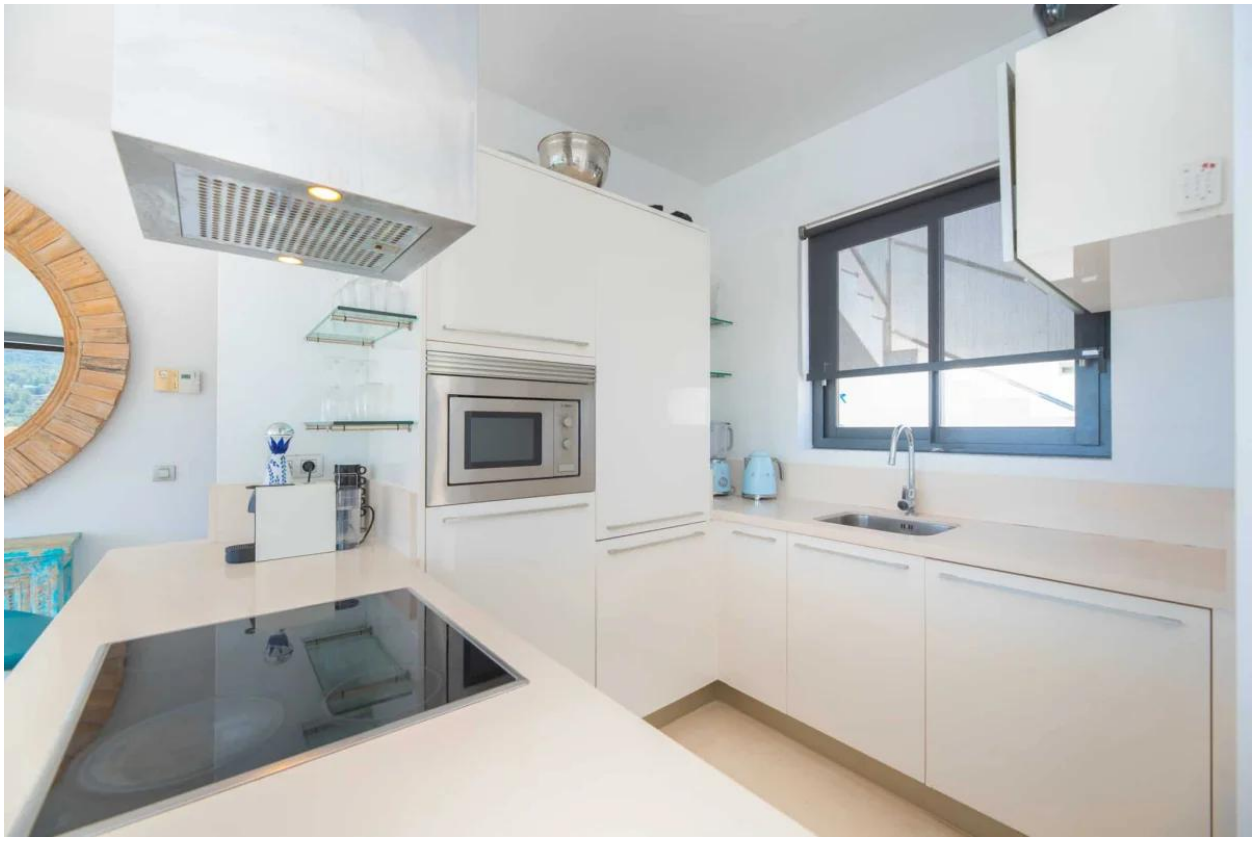

Built in 2010, the property features 1,959 sq ft (182 m²) of living area, spread across multiple levels. It offers five bedrooms and five bathrooms, with bright rooms and a thoughtful layout designed for comfort and independence. The main living room opens onto the terrace and pool, while the U-shaped kitchen, equipped with high-end appliances and a bar, creates a functional and inviting space. The master bedroom has direct access to the terrace and sea views.

One of its most distinctive features is the separate guest apartment, which includes a bathroom, patio, storage room, and laundry area. The property also incorporates a private soundproofed entertainment room, equipped with a bar and lighting, adding a unique character to the home.

Outside, the infinity pool blends into a privileged setting, with Es Vedrà as a backdrop. The partially covered terrace allows for al fresco dining, relaxing moments, and pleasant evenings throughout the year. A chill-out area, outdoor shower, and two private parking spaces complete the amenities.

A property with its own unique personality, ideal for those seeking to enjoy the tranquility of Cala Carbó, share their stay with family and friends, or have a private retreat in Ibiza with exceptional Mediterranean views.
